

Construction Update: April 17

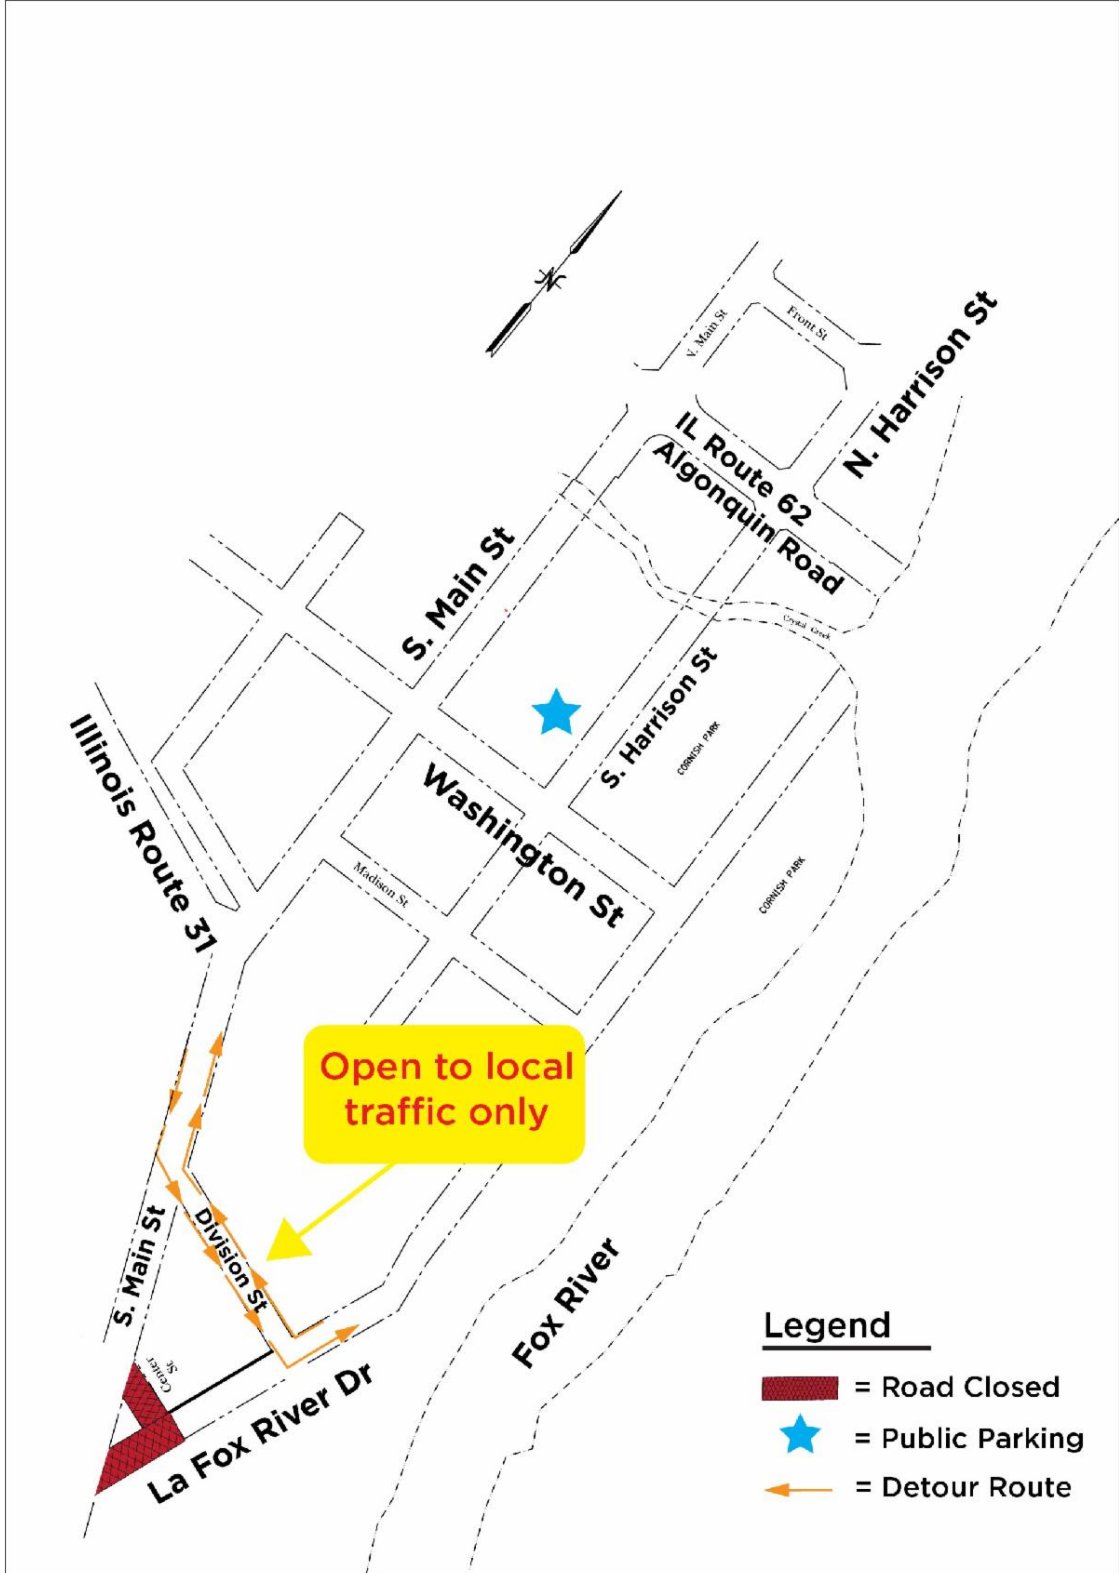

This week, the contractor has begun the remaining curb and sidewalk replacements around the intersection of La Fox River Drive and Center Street. Crews were also able to start the restoration of the field at the intersection of Algonquin Road and N. Harrison Street. After this site is complete, the contractor will begin restoring the area around the intersection of La Fox River Drive and Center Street.

The contractor will complete the remaining paving work at La Fox River Drive and Center Street once asphalt plants reopen for the year, traditionally late spring.
